2008 Membership Policies

Louisiana Youth Coaches Alliance is a non-profit organization formed to provide urban youth with positive alternatives to the streets. Louisiana Youth Coaches Alliance is focus on the developmental enrichment of all its members and programs. Louisiana Youth Coaches Alliance reviews, regulates, governs, and supervises all forms of youth athletics in the East Baton Rouge Parish communities. The organization, with community, church, and the Park & Recreation Commission for the East Baton Rouge Parish's (BREC) support, is determined to create an understanding, develop respect, inspire leadership, foster teamwork, establish discipline, and nurture love amongst our youth & communities through athletics and educational programs.

Louisiana Youth Coaches Alliance's mission is to utilize organized and structured athletics as a tool to enlighten and cultivate the development of well rounded youth through establishing a foundation of the following life skills:

- Responsibility
- Goal Setting
- Sportsmanship
- Self Control
- Smart Decisions
- Teamwork
- Leadership
- Perseverance

Louisiana Youth Coaches Alliance will promote the building of this foundation throughout its programs and by its members.

Louisiana Youth Coaches Alliance has started its' initiatives to improve the quality of youth athletics & life by partnering with the Park & Recreation Commission for the East Baton Rouge Parish (BREC) to enhance the quality of the current Junior Tackle Football program offered to the East Baton Rouge Parish communities.

Louisiana Youth Coaches Alliance is committed to the furthering of education of all its' members in all aspects of athletics (coaching, officiating, rules, child development, first aid, team management, etc.).

Membership in the Alliance is open to all parties interested in furthering the value of youth athletics. Members will be required to participate in an annual membership fee. This membership fee will be utilized to fulfill the mission of the Alliance.
